Sister Mary Mercy McAuliffe

Doctor of Education

honoris causa

Splendid among the Gospel Beatitudes is the virtue of Mercy, and you, Sister Mary Mercy McAuliffe identify both with the name and with your religious affiliation as a Sister of Mercy. Your long and eventful professional career reflects that living tradition. You have faced a full range of assignments — from young grade-school teacher to the highest post of Province Administrator. Beyond your own scholastic interests in library development and student counseling in schools, you contributed your dynamic talents to Salve Regina College both as a member of the Board of Trustees and as an Administrator. Only those closest to the College know the positive impact of your years of leadership as a Province Administrator. You saw Salve Regina College's potential to be a great institution and you exercised wise foresight and clear vision which influence the College to this day.

After further years of administrative duties and many distinguished honors, among them being named "Administrator of the Year" by the Massachusetts Hospital School, you have tirelessly continued an active career of educational service as Director of the Massachusetts Hospital School.

In recognition of your sterling allegiance to the great Mercy teaching tradition, particularly at Salve Regina College, and to the philosophy and ideals that guide our institution, Salve Regina College rightly awards you, Sister Mary Mercy McAuliffe, RSM the degree of Doctor of Education, honoris causa, with all its rights and privileges.

Matthew J. Smith

Doctor of Education

honoris causa

Scholar, educator, legislator, you, Matthew J. Smith, stand high among the dedicated idealists who lend luster to the name public servant. A proud product of Rhode Island Catholic education, you have illuminated the rich cultural and religious history of our State through research, teaching, and writing. Equally important, you translated your social awareness to practical effect through popular election to the State House of Representatives. Here, through fourteen years of brilliant service, you championed basic financial reforms to benefit all citizens.

Your esteem for independent higher education in the State led you to propose and fight for unique legislation that guarantees fiscal equity toward nonprofit centers of learning. Your political probity and moral leadership were honored by your colleagues when you were chosen Speaker of the House over a seven-year period. To this admirable record must be added the countless good causes, the charitable and service organizations to which you have generously devoted your time and talents.

In recognition of your distinguished legislative career, your scholarly achievements, and your Christian commitment, Salve Regina College is pleased to award you, Matthew J. Smith, the degree of Doctor of Education, honoris causa, with all its rights and privileges.

THE MACE

The “mace” and bearer represent a custom which dates back to the Middle Ages. The mace was a club-like staff carried by a bearer who was responsible for protecting a dignitary taking office or opening court. From the 16th century in England and since colonial days in America, it has become a symbol of office used in ceremonies and carried by the procession leader or macebearer.

Salve Regina’s mace is silver, twenty-two inches long and is engraved with the words Salve Regina and Maria Spes Nostra (Mary Our Hope). Imprinted on the mace is the official corporation seal of the College.

The College mace is carried by the Chief Marshal who leads the procession to and from Commencement exercises. He is followed by students, faculty, distinguished guests and College officials.

PRESIDENT’S MEDALLION

The pewter medallion worn by the College President symbolizes the leadership and authority of the institution’s highest office.

Inscribed on the medallion are names of the five Sisters of Mercy who have served in the presidency at Salve Regina College. Each woman has made a distinctive contribution to the integrity, growth and life of the College.

The medallion’s design is based on the College shield which symbolizes the commitment of the Sisters of Mercy to Salve Regina College, the dedication to learning by all members of the Salve community, and the unending search for wisdom which flows from the knowledge of the liberal scholar.

The medallion is worn by the President at all formal academic occasions as public testimony of the ideals of Salve Regina College.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

When universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, they were under the jurisdiction of the Church. Most of those studying were clerks in Holy Orders, monks or priests. They wore a habit or cloak to which was attached a cowl or hood. This could be pulled up over the head or thrown back, according to weather. Gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings and hoods served to cover the tonsured head before the use of the skull cap.

Today, the academic costume of cap, gown and hood has taken on a symbolic meaning. Colors and shapes conform to a generally accepted code and indicate the faculty conferring the degree and the kind of degree conferred.

Gowns for the bachelor's degree are worn closed and are distinguished by their long, pointed sleeves. Master's degree gowns are designed to be worn open. They have very long sleeves, oblong in shape. Gowns for the doctoral degree, usually black, are also designed to be worn open and have velvet panels. Three velvet bars are stitched to the upper part of the full, bell-shaped sleeves. College President Sister Lucille McKillop wears a blue doctoral gown, signifying the primary institutional color for Salve Regina.

Hoods are trimmed with a slim strip of velvet to indicate the specific faculty awarding the degree. The colored lining is the official color of the institution conferring the degree. Hoods may be trimmed to represent the following academic areas:

Arts, Letters, — White

Science — Golden Yellow

Philosophy — Blue

Social Service — Citron

Theology — Scarlet

SALVE REGINA

Hail, O Holy Queen

Salve Regina Mater misericordiae:
Vita, dulcedo, et spes nostra, salve.

Ad te clamamus, exsules, filii Hevae.
Ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes
in hac lacrimarum valle.

Eia ergo, Advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos ad nos converte.

Et Jesum, benedictum fructum ventris
tui, nobis post hoc exsillium ostende.

O clemens: O pia: O dulcis Virgo Maria.
